

Don't miss Saturday morning's Author Chat & Book Signing

Saturday, August 11, from 10:15 a.m. to 12 noon, in the foyer

Internationally known writer Tom Miller and alumni author Bob Riel will be available Saturday morning to talk with reunion attendees about travel and travel writing. Copies of their books will be available for purchase and signing. This author event will be held in the Alumni Showcase area of the hotel foyer immediately following the morning program "A Song for the World." The Colwell Brothers and Herb Allen will hold a book signing in the foyer at the same time and chat about their five decades of international music adventures.

Discuss travel and travel writing at the 2007 UWPIAA Reunion

Internationally acclaimed author TOM MILLER has been bringing us extraordinary stories of ordinary people for more than thirty years. His highly acclaimed travel books include THE PANAMA HAT TRAIL, called by National Geographic Traveler "among the best travel books ever written," TRADING WITH THE ENEMY, which Lonely Planet says "may just be the best travel book about Cuba ever written," and about the American Southwest, JACK RUBY'S KITCHEN SINK, winner of the Lowell Thomas Award for Best Travel Book of 2001. His articles have appeared in Smithsonian, The New Yorker, The New York Times, LIFE, and many other publications. The San Francisco Chronicle calls Miller "one of our best non-fiction writers." Details about Miller and his books may be found at www.tommillerbooks.com.

Up with People alumnus BOB RIEL (83B) recently published his first travel book, TWO LAPS AROUND THE WORLD, which chronicles the experiences that he and his wife, Lisa, had during two round-the-world journeys. Bob is a writer and consultant who specializes in cross-cultural and travel subjects. He maintains a blog about these topics, called Travels in the Riel World, and has written numerous articles for print and online publications, as well as more than 70 country-specific manuals that are used in cross-cultural business trainings. More information about his book, blog and other writings can be found at his website, www.bobrieland.com.

